Location: James Martin Middle School

The Charlotte Starz, along with the NC National Softball Association, are forming a new instructional program for young 8-U softball players born in 2003 or later. This program compliments traditional recreation leagues by offering advanced instruction and competitive opportunities.

This new instructional league will be coached by the players of the Charlotte Starz 16-U Showcase team. These high school athletes will work under the guidance of the Starz coaching staff to teach league players advanced fundamentals in throwing, fielding, hitting, and base running. This is a unique opportunity to learn new skills from young ladies who aspire to play in college and yet still remember their first days in the game.

This program will offer instructional sessions every Saturday and Sunday in March from 2:00—4:00 at James Martin Middle School in the University area of Charlotte. (Address is provided above). In early April the players will be divided into teams and participate in controlled scrimmages. The program will conclude in late April with the chance to compete with teams in similar programs from other cities in the region.

The registration fee for this program is just $30, which covers insurance, team equipment and jersey. There is an additional $5 fee per instructional session.
